

Autoimmune Encephalitis Mad Libs

English Reminders

- Noun: A word used to identify any of a class of people, Places or things.
- Verb: A word used to describe an action, state or occurrence such as hear, become, happen.
- Adjective: a word or phrase naming an attribute, added to or directly related to a noun to modify or describe it.

_____ (Salutation) Zebras!

I'm _____ (your name), a member of IAES because _____ . My journey has had some very real challenges-things most people could not imagine! My journey has also had "Aha" moments like _____ (your "Aha" moment), when I came to understand an aspect of life in a new way.

The hardest part about AE has been _____ (a struggle). Thankfully, I am _____ (a positive adjective)! I possess qualities like an ability to _____ (a strength) that enable me to persevere when times are tough.

And, I know that my community of friends and family will always have my back. I will believe better days lie ahead. If nothing else, however, I can always turn to _____ (your splurge) to pick me up in a pinch this week!

1. Salutation
2. Your name
3. What brings you here
4. A realization since Autoimmune Encephalitis
5. A struggle for you
6. Positive adjective that describes you
7. One verb, something you are good at
8. One noun- your favorite thing to splurg on